St Colman Play script

Scene 1

Setting

The story begins in the Burren. St.Colman and his man servant are in a cave in the Burren forest which is cold, dark and wet.

St.Colman: "Isn't it a beautiful place with such views and the lovely flora and fauna. I have found great peace here to be closer to God".

Man servant: "Oh yes but for once would it be so bad to have a nice meal on this Easter morning. I'm tired of all these nuts and berries! What I wouldn't give for some meat!

St.Colman: "Let's pray to God for a nice meal on this special day and hopefully a miracle will happen".

Man servant: "I will pray my hardest. I feel so hungry!"

St.Colman & Man Servant chant "Please God provide us with a nice meal on this day"

A collection of handwritten musical notation in blue ink. The notation consists of various note heads, stems, and beams, some with flat symbols (b) indicating the pitch. The notes are scattered across the page, with some forming recognizable rhythmic patterns. The word "Music" is written in a cursive style at the bottom center of the page.
